PENTECOST SUNDAY

The spiritual dynamic that was present at the first Pentecost, moving people to love God, to seek out holiness, and to come together as a church, is still at work today.

How can we tell if this breath of God is active in our lives? We will feel energized by the Spirit, and we will want to set our sights on being like Jesus. We will feel moved to go to work for the kingdom, relying on the Spirit's power and guidance. We will try to be more loving, more kind, and more patient.

Right now, stop and take a few deep breaths. In your mind, imagine yourself breathing in the Spirit and breathing out your sin. Picture yourself accepting the Lord and his plans, and letting go of your own plans and visions. Know that what you are breathing in is pure, holy, and intoxicating! Jesus has great plans for every member of his church. And that includes you!! Pray!!!

*"O Holy Spirit, Beloved of my soul, I adore you!
 Enlighten me, Guide me, Strengthen me, Console me!
 Give me your orders, tell me what I should do!
 I promise to submit myself to all that you desire of me,
 And to accept all that you permit to happen to me.
 Let me only know your will."*

ST. RITA OF CASCIA, FEAST DAY MAY 22ND

Rita of Cascia has an amazing biography that everyone should read. The widowed mother had suffered great physical abuse at her husband's hands and mental anguish at the revengeful seekings of her sons, became Sister Rita at the age of 36. Sister Rita lived forty years as a practicing nun of poverty and doing works of mercy, charity and peace. When she entered the convent she was given one habit. She wore that habit, one habit, the remainder of her life and was buried in it. One day, as Saint Rita was kneeling in prayer before a replica of the Crucified Christ. She implored, "Oh my Jesus, let me share in Thy suffering at least by one of Thy thorns." A single thorn from the crown surrounding Jesus' head speared directly into Sister Rita's forehead. This wound bled until the end of her life. Because of her many trials and sacrifices in life St. Rita is known as the Patron Saint of Impossible Causes.

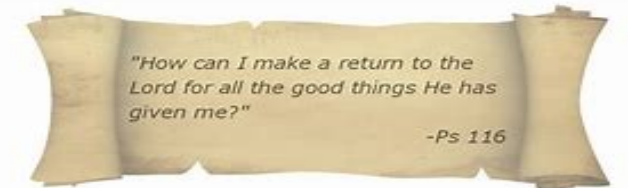

SHINING EXAMPLES OF STEWARDSHIP

Next time you are at St. John the Baptist Mission take a little time to walk around and see the results of the hard work of some of our parishioners. Unwanted weeds and foliage around the cemetery and parking lot have been sprayed. A great deal of trimming has recently been done. Overall the grounds are looking great. They are never in bad condition, thanks to a few couples who routinely put in some time there. There is one couple who is very deserving of a big mahalo for their diligence in getting the job done lately. Those of us who attend St. John weekly appreciate you. Thank you to Kenneth and Gloria Ciriako who have been spotted by others handling the tasks without being asked. MAHALO!!

FORMATION

BRING OTHERS TO OUR FAITH

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops made the following statement about what it means to evangelize: "Here, there are two elements of evangelization at work: 1. Witness, which is the simple living out of the faith; 2. Sharing, which is spreading the Good News of Jesus." Do we follow the admonitions given us by the Lord? Are we examples of what it means to be Catholic and Christian? Do we truly share the Good News?"

DEACON'S CORNER -Craig Camello-

Asking for the Gifts...

The Church teaches us that there are 7 gifts of the Holy Spirit. These gifts prepare us to receive the Holy Spirit's inspirations in our hearts. Wisdom, which gives us a "taste" for the things of God. We experience joy in what is right. Understanding is the gift of the Holy Spirit that gives us a deeper sense of the meaning of the teachings of the Church. Knowledge enables us to judge everything by the light of heaven. Counsel helps us to speak the words that will draw others closer to God. Fortitude gives us the strength to keep trying to love and be faithful to God and to our calling when things get tough. Piety gives us reverence towards God and towards each human person. Fear of the Lord brings us to avoid sin because we love God and don't want to offend him.

St John Paul II said that he used to ask the Holy Spirit every day to give him these gifts in greater abundance. If he needed to do that, perhaps we should try it too.

So our challenge is to learn these gifts of the Holy Spirit and to pray for them each day this week. As we do that, we are opening the door to that new life the Holy Spirit brings.

Congratulations to our newly confirmed as you seek God's love through the Holy Spirit!
