TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new vision, new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the acts of giving from our abundance and attending to the needs of the poor open us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires.

LIVING CATHOLIC IN THE 808 After Deciding to Make a Positive Change

One famous saying is that no good deed goes unpunished. We call it Murphy's Law. After we choose good, when we make a decision for the good of ourselves or others, THEN "life" happens. The spiritual truth of this is critical for those of us who want to follow Jesus, who want to share God with others, who want to grow in holiness. The truth is that after we decide to take another step towards God, towards others and towards the best version of ourselves, well, the Enemy of Our Human Nature will work overtime to make sure we don't actually succeed. (Example, just deciding to pray more is not actually doing it.)

How helpful it is to remember this! If we decide to be more loving, to drink less, to spend more time with our keiki...if we decide to move closer to Jesus....we need not be surprised by all the bad that life begins to throw at us. And we definitely cannot let ourselves be derailed by any bad that befalls us after choosing good!

This is not a sign you are doing something wrong. It is a sign you are choosing God, the author of all that is good. (And a sign that the Evil One and our sinful selves are not happy about it.)

DEACON'S CORNER -Craig Camello-

Seek the Wisdom Right before Your Eyes This Week Nature has incredible power for life and growth without our efforts, but it also benefits from our help and nurturing. Grace, on the other hand, is necessary for us to truly grow spiritually because our nature is wounded by sin. Without God's help nothing good grows in us, even with our best efforts. Today's Gospel reminds us that if a mustard seed, wheat, or cedar can help us understand the mysteries of God, what everyday things that we take for granted have the same power? Let's spend some time this week admiring nature and asking ourselves, "What does this creation teach me about its Creator?"

Happy Father's Day!
