SERVICE

CHURCH CLEANING MINISTRY

July 21, 2018—St. Benedict: Peter.
 St. John: Pam & Craig Camello. Mahalo! We appreciate everyone who participates in this very necessary ministry!

ST. BENEDICT GIFT SHOP

Thank you to everyone who has contributed fruit to our hale for visitors. We are always in need of more! If you need help picking or delivering just call the office. We will send someone!

Thank you to those who have recently spent time greeting visitors at the gift shop. More volunteers are needed. This is not to mean “selling”. The visitors always appreciate someone to talk story with. No time limit, no specific hours, just check in with the office, please.

MAHALO! MAHALO! MAHALO! MAHALO! MAHALO!

Yes, that's five thank you's. Four are for Haunani Hashimoto and her children, Kauhane, Palani, and Tsulan. This family has been using part of their summer to come to the Painted Church and greet visitors at the gift shop as well as doing some clean-up in Peter's absence.

Haunani mopped up a bathroom mess and let her father, Bruce Hashimoto, know (Mahalo#5). He came down right away and fixed the problem. So thank you to all five of you for being awesome volunteers! It's always great to see Stewardship in action!

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“He instructed them to take nothing for the journey.” When Jesus sent his Apostles out, He sent them “two by two,” and He basically commanded them to take nothing on the journey: “no food, no sack, no money in their belts.” The point of the Lord is that all they needed was to trust in God. Jesus more or less says the same thing to us.

As long as we trust in God, our needs will be met. That is easily said, but it is a bit daunting to actually do it. Yet, people have been doing that since Jesus' time. It is one of the reasons that the Church has thrived for such a long time.

There is a secondary reason for Jesus' instructions though, one with which we may not be familiar. At that time there was a rule that you could not enter a temple area with shoes or a moneybag, because you were there to serve the Lord, nothing else and no one else. The Apostles understood that preaching the Gospel and healing in God's name was holy work. Jesus did not want them to exemplify any other motive either.

One of the foundational elements of stewardship is trusting God. What enables us to be good stewards and to think of giving to God first, of ourselves and what we have, is that we truly believe that God will take care of us. God has a plan for each of us, and it is better than our own plan may be.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Amos said, “The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people” (Amos 7:12-15).

Psalm — Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation (Psalm 85).

Second Reading — The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing (Ephesians 1:3-14 [3-10]).

Gospel — Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two (Mark 6:7-13).

HOSPITALITY

ALOHA AND WELCOME HOME

We pray that you enjoy celebrating with us this weekend. Whether you are new to the community or live here, know that you are invited to join our Parish family. You may register with us by dropping in or calling our Parish Office during the week at (808) 328-2227, or you may pick up a registration form at the entry of the church. If you are here for a short time, we hope you enjoyed your visit with us and consider this your "home away from home".

AN INVITATION FROM FATHER ORNOLDO

All parishioners are welcome to meet with Father Ornoldo to discuss any personal matters, parish issues, sacraments not received, etc. Ask Father for an appointment or call the office 328-2227.

GIFT OF JESUS - TREASURE OF GRACE

Father Ornoldo welcomes all to receive the Sacrament of Confession, at both St. Benedict and St. John, twenty minutes before all four weekend Masses. He waits for us there.

Most Catholics believe they are morally pretty good. We measure ourselves not against the standards of the Lord, but against the standards of our fallen, secular society. Satan tempts us to deny responsibility for our sins. Our best weapon to defeat the Prince of Darkness is bringing our sins to light as we confess them to the priest who is 'in persona Christi' in the sacrament of Reconciliation, granting absolution.

PRAYER

DEVOTION TO OUR BLESSED MOTHER

As a spiritual devotion to Mary, our Blessed Mother and the Patron Saint of the U.S., the Rosary and the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary are prayed at approximately 40 minutes before all weekend Masses at St. Benedict's and St. John's. Please join us in praying this powerful prayer to our Mother, who intercedes for us.

PRAYER TO ST. BENEDICT OF NURSIA

St. Benedict, you were a man of peace. You walked the path of peace your whole life long and led all who came to you into the ways of peace. Help us, St. Benedict, to achieve peace; peace in our hearts, peace in our homes, peace in our sorely troubled world and our parish. Through your powerful intercession with God help us to be peace-makers. Aid us to work for peace, to take the first step in ending bitterness, to be the first to hold out our hands in friendship and forgiveness. Beg God to let peace permeate our lives so that they may be lived in grace and love. At the end of our lives obtain for us the Reward of the Peacemakers, the eternal vision of God in heaven.

HAVE A SPECIAL PRAYER INTENTION?

From August 26 to September 1, 2018, the Sisters of the Sacred Hearts at Regina Pacis Convent in Honolulu will be expressly remembering our parishioners in their prayers and works. If you have a special intention that you would like them to pray for, call (808) 737-5822, mail request to Regina Pacis Community 1120 Fifth Ave Honolulu HI 96816, or email them at reginasscc@cs.com

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

- Sunday: Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
- Monday: Our Lady of Mount Carmel
- Wednesday: St. Camillus de Lellis
- Friday: St. Apollinaris
- Saturday: St. Lawrence of Brindisi; Blessed Virgin Mary

FORMATION

Adult faith formation is a process by which people consciously grow in the life of Jesus Christ through experience, reflection, prayer and study.

CATHOLICISM-BASIC CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY

Do you want to know more about your faith? Would you like to come together to share, to discover, to know about your faith? We will be gathering together Wednesdays beginning, July 11, 2018 from 7pm-8pm at St. John the Baptist. Please check with the greeters for the sign-up sheet. Questions? call Margie at 323-3469

THE PRECEPTS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH...

Do you know what they are??

Catechism: 2041. "The Precepts of the Church are set in the context of a moral life bound to and nourished by liturgical life. The obligatory character of these positive laws decreed by the pastoral authorities is meant to guarantee to the faithful the very necessary minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor." If we fall below this bare-minimum level, we can't rightly consider ourselves to be in full communion with the Catholic Church. Each of these precepts of the Catholic Church is a requirement. Together with the Ten Commandments, they represent the minimum level of moral living. Intentional violation of the Precepts or the Commandments is a grave matter.

In next week's bulletin we will have a list of the Five Precepts of the Catholic Church.

DEACON'S CORNER -Craig Camello-

Jesus continues to send us into the world as his disciples. But like the first disciples, we are not sent alone. Jesus has given us the community of the Church, which strengthens our life of discipleship. In this Mass, and especially through Holy Communion, Jesus will renew this beautiful choice that he has made for each of us. He will come to each one of us saying our name and giving us the strength we need to be his faithful followers. Let's renew our choice of him, confident that he alone is more than enough to fill all our desires for meaning, forgiveness, happiness, and love.
