PARISH STEWARDSHIP RENEWAL

September is the second month of our annual Stewardship Campaign. We will be focusing on the stewardship of talent. Recognizing that God has given each individual unique skills and talents so that together we can do the work of Our Lord, we strive to share our own talents and to encourage and welcome others to also use their talents to carry out the mission and ministry of the Church. For encouragement, there will be homilies, articles and on the third week there will be testimonies, all relating to talent. On the last week the Stewardship Committee will again pass out the little “promise” cards where you will promise God and yourself to improve on your stewardship of talent.

FAITH FORMATION

STEWARDSHIP OF OUR TALENTS AND GIFTS

Ministry is supposed to be a team sport.

~Our parish has a multitude of ministries that are always in need of energetic parishioners willing to serve.

~By giving of your time and talents, it expresses your gratitude to the God who has given you these gifts.

~Review your current participation in ministry efforts here in our parish, our community at large and your family life. Your participation is essential. After prayer reflection of the blessings and gifts God has bestowed upon you, consider your commitment to Stewardship.

...All of us are an integral part of the Body of Christ. All of us are important and needed to have a Church strong and alive. Thank you for all you do for our community so we can continue the mission and work of Christ.

DEACON'S CORNER

God's gift to All...

A talent is something that we are naturally born with that gives us unique skills and abilities. Talent is set apart from knowledge in that it is not a learned behavior, although it can be strengthened and practiced. The Bible tells us that we are all born with individual talents and gifts that make us different from each other. When we find out the talents that God has given us and we use them to glorify Him, we will experience a full life! Our loving Lord wants us to feel whole and complete, and it is through talents that we can find our unique calling in life!

Ephesians 2:10...For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

-Deacon Craig Camello-

MAHALO FOR YOUR FRUIT DONATIONS!!

Thank you to everyone who continues to donate fruit to our gift shop. We are grateful for all. Jesse and Jocelyn Lomongo again brought a generous amount this past week. Please continue to share what you have.

...and on the same subject (fruit)

The tourists love the abundance of your tropical farm produce. We appreciate your continued generosity.

LET'S TALK ABOUT WEDNESDAY VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES !!FELLOWSHIP SUNDAYS

We continue with our Coffee, Snacks and Conversation Fellowship after Sunday Mass. It has been successful. We have the first and third Sundays at St. John Mission and 2nd and 4th Sundays at St. Benedict. Our fellowship has been delightful with the food and drinks you have been sharing, and most specially your presence! Father Sieg is looking forward to everybody's involvement and participation in these and future events and fellowship. Your joining in our fellowship can be part of your stewardship of time. Come and be good stewards!!

ONE EXPLANATION OF PRIDE

It is recognizing that every good in yourself is a gift from God and is meant to be given back to the Lord by being shared with others.

If the least honorable seat is, in the Lord's view, the best place to be seated, then true humility requires your sharing it with others in gratitude to the Lord who gave it.

THE LITANY OF HUMILITY -Rafael Cardinal Merry de Val

O Jesus! meek and humble of heart, Hear me.
From the desire of being esteemed,
Deliver me, Jesus. (repeat after each line)
From the desire of being loved,
From the desire of being extolled,
From the desire of being honored,
From the desire of being praised,
From the desire of being preferred to others,
From the desire of being consulted,
From the desire of being approved,
From the fear of being humiliated,
From the fear of being despised,
From the fear of suffering rebukes,
From the fear of being calumniated,
From the fear of being forgotten,
From the fear of being ridiculed,
From the fear of being wronged,
From the fear of being suspected,
That others may be loved more than I,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it. (repeat after each line)
That others may be esteemed more than I,
That, in the opinion of the world,
others may increase and I may decrease,
That others may be chosen and I set aside,
That others may be praised and I unnoticed,
That others may be preferred to me in everything,
That others may become holier than I,
provided that I may become as holy as I should,
-Rafael Cardinal Merry de Val (1865-1930),

Let us all be humbled under the mighty hand of God!
