ST. JAMES THE GREATER 1st Century

Feast Day July 25th

Jesus called James and John, the sons of Zebedee, to leave their livelihood as fishermen and follow him. St. James was the brother of John. Peter was his partner. When they were called to become Apostles of Jesus, they left everything to do so. Perhaps because of their zeal or temperament, Jesus called them "sons of thunder." James, John and Peter were honored to be the only Apostles present at the Transfiguration. They were also present in the Garden of Gethsemane while Jesus prayed before His death. James was the first of the 12 to be martyred; he was beheaded in Jerusalem by order of Herod Agrippa about 44. He is the patron saint of pilgrims, laborers, rheumatism, several Latin American countries and Spain, where Santiago de Compostela has been a famous pilgrimage center since the Middle Ages. Some legends say James preached in Spain before his death; others say his relics were transferred there. "The greater" distinguishes him from the other apostle James, "the lesser," who likely was smaller or younger.
