WISDOM OF BEN SIRA

To keep the law is to make many offerings; whoever observes the commandments sacrifices a peace offering. By works of charity one offers fine flour, and one who gives alms presents a sacrifice of praise. To refrain from evil pleases the Lord, and to avoid injustice is atonement.*

(Wisdom of Ben Sira 35:1-5)

*Footnote from NAB Revised Edition: Keeping the commandments of the law and avoiding injustice constitute sacrifice pleasing and acceptable to God.
