What's New?

Everyone gets a bit excited with the prospect of something new, whether it's a new job, a new car, or a new iPhone. This new thing might simply be a replacement. However, when it is a new model, an upgrade, we get even more excited. Revelation uses a distinctive Greek word, kainós, for this second kind of newness. The new heaven, the new earth, the new Jerusalem (and the new commandment mentioned in the Gospel) suggest radical newness—the kind resulting from an act of God. Centuries earlier, the prophet Isaiah had promised a new heaven and a new earth (see Isaiah 65:17). This metaphor pointed to a time of eschatological peace and fulfillment, a time when the covenant relationship between God and the people would be renewed and last forever. This was a promise the people held dear. How are we to read this passage from Revelation today? Is it referring to a time in this life? Or, after this life? It may actually refer to both. We believe that, with his death and resurrection, Jesus inaugurated this time of fulfillment. However, its full establishment is not yet complete, hence the new commandment: “Love one another” (John 13:34). When we truly follow this commandment and love each other, we actually make present the new heaven and new earth; we make real the new Jerusalem, God’s covenant partner. However, the ultimate fulfillment will come when God finally brings all things to completion. That is when everything will be new.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

Temptation in us truly works like this: it begins with something small, a desire, an idea, it grows, it infects others and in the end, it justifies itself....And all of us, when we are conquered by temptation, ...end up feeling calm, because we have found a justification for this sin, for this sinful attitude.

SAINT OF THE WEEK—FEAST DAY MAY 21st Saint Christopher Magallanes 1869–1927 and Companions, Martyrs

Christopher (Cristobal) Magallanes was ordained in 1899 and lived a normal priestly life for many years. In 1926 the Mexican government, led by Plutarco Calles, started a persecution of Catholics and expulsion or murder of priests. January 1, 1927 the Catholics formed a religious freedom group and went to war against the government—The Cristero War. On May 21, 1927 Fr. Magallanes and a brother priest, Fr. Caloca were caught in a shootout between the Cristeros and Federal forces and they were captured. Since, at the time, priests had no civil rights in Mexico, they were not allowed a trial. They were led to the municipal building for what happened next. Fr. Magallanes said “I am innocent and die innocent. I absolve with all my heart those who seek my death and ask God that my blood bring peace to a divided Mexico.” Then both were shot dead by a firing squad of Mexicans in soldiers’ uniforms.

Twenty-five martyrs are commemorated all together on this date. All were diocesan priests, except for three laymen who died with their parish priest. They were all Cristeros who died in eight different Mexican states under circumstances similar to those of Frs. Magallanes and Caloca. They were canonized in 2000 by Pope Saint John Paul II.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

God's Greatest Commandment

[May 15, 2022]

Treasure Hunt

This week's challenge is to review excerpts of New Testament gospels reflective of Jesus' message today.

1. John 13:34-35: Jesus says, "I give you a new commandment: L_____ o_____ a_____. This is how a_____ will know that you are my d_____."
2. 1 John 4:20: "Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or a sister is a l_____. For whoever does not love those whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have n_____ s_____."
3. Matthew 5:43-44: "You have heard it said, 'Love your neighbor and h_____ your enemy. But I say love your enemies and p_____ for those who p_____ you."
4. Luke 6:35: "But love your enemies and do g_____ to them and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your r_____ will be great and you will be c_____ of the Most High because He is k_____ to the ungrateful and w_____."

Bonus: Whose words are these? "Being a disciple means being constantly ready to bring the love of Jesus to others, and this can happen unexpectedly and in any place: on the street, in a city square, during work, on a journey."

Dear Padre,

My aunt tells her husband he shouldn't watch a certain TV show. She says it's an "occasion of sin." What is that?

Occasions of sin are people, places, or situations that can easily lead a person to sin or give the individual an opportunity to commit a sin. There are two types: remote and proximate (or "near"). If the attraction is not strong or has only a small probability of leading to sin, the occasion is remote. Remote occasions of sin are always around us, and we have no obligation to try to avoid them. If the attraction is powerful or the probability of its leading to sin is great, the occasion is called proximate. Saint Alphonsus suggested that if a person sins four out of ten times in a particular situation, that situation should be regarded as a proximate occasion of sin. Proximate or near occasions of sin are further classified as necessary or voluntary. A necessary proximate occasion cannot be avoided or can be avoided only with great difficulty—for example, an occasion associated with doing one's job or being in prison. A voluntary proximate occasion is freely and voluntarily entered. We must avoid voluntary proximate occasions of grave sin. Among the many means at our disposal for avoiding occasions of sin, the sacraments of reconciliation and Eucharist have pride of place. Prayer and self-discipline also help.
