Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's First Reading from the Book of Genesis we hear the story of Adam and Eve and their sins, defying God. However, when God was present in the garden, the man and woman hid themselves. Adam responds to God's question why in part by saying "I was afraid... so I hid myself." Did he, do any of us really think he could hide from God?

As children many of us may have hidden from a parent when we did something wrong and it was in violation of some specific order we had received. Our efforts to hide what we did and to hide ourselves were probably no more effective than Adam's.

As humans we know the temptation of following our own plans, even if they are contrary to God's. We think we know better and we may try to still have it our way. If what we have done is particularly shameful, we may try to hide our sins from God.

The sincere truth is that we cannot hide from God any more than Adam and Eve could. Psalm 139 declares, "Where can I hide from your spirit (God's)? From your presence where can I flee? If I ascend to the heavens, you are there; if I lie down in Sheol (the place of the dead) you are there, too. If I say 'Surely darkness will hide me'... Darkness is not dark for you."

What are we hiding from? In recent weeks we have learned over and over how much God loves us. It is time for us to accept that and not hide.

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

- Sunday: Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
- Monday: St. Barnabas
- Wednesday: St. Anthony of Padua
- Thursday: Flag Day
- Saturday: Blessed Virgin Mary

ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA

Do you know, or have you ever wondered why there is a popular statue of St. Anthony holding the child Jesus? St. Anthony was born in the 12th century far from the time of Jesus' childhood. The statue is a memorial of one of St. Anthony's miracles and apparitions. One night, St. Anthony, before going to bed for the night, was reading his Bible. Suddenly, the Infant Jesus appeared resting on the Bible and in the arms of St. Anthony. The Infant Jesus stroked St. Anthony's face. Here the Word of God appeared to the man who had so well preached His Word. For this reason, most images of St. Anthony depict him holding a Bible with the Infant Jesus. He was also called Wonder-Worker and Hammer of the Heretics. There are many more stories that have been told of his miracles. Look him up and enjoy!

St. Anthony pray for us!

DEACON'S CORNER - Craig Camello-

The Gift of Self Is the Greatest Gift: Sometimes our offerings are not enough. What we offer are something external to us. We give things such as money, used clothes, old furniture much faster than we give of our time and our way of thinking. We pray for strength and guidance... "Lord, help me to let go of my way of thinking to give some of my time. Help me realize that this may be the perfect offering that you seek from me and I will offer to do a favor in my time and talents."
