REFLECTING ON THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT DURING THIS MOST BLESSED SEASON OF EASTER (Part Five)

Mass-ive Presence! Thus, at Mass, the Priest (or Bishop) celebrates the Sacrament of the Eucharist—and in the course of that celebration Christ is present in several ways: in the proclamation of Scripture, in the person of the Priest, and in the prayerful voice of the assembly. Moreover, Christ is abidingly present in only one profound and specific way: He is truly and really present to us in the Eucharistic species (i.e., His Body and Blood, visible to our senses as bread and wine). Just as Christ was present to His Apostles and followers in His time on earth, he continues to be with us, present to us, wholly and fully in the Eucharist. This is why at the end of Matthew’s Gospel, he promises to be with us “until the end of the age” -- for indeed He is: the Eucharist is Christ’s abiding presence in the world to us and amongst us.

Next I will focus on the essential components of confecting the Sacrament and on the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Do You Validate? In the Sacramental theology of the Faith, for any Sacrament to be validly confected, the proper “form” and “matter” must be present. Without the presence of those validating elements, there is no Sacrament—there is no encounter with Christ. In addition to the form and matter, the proper minister (a Priest or Bishop) with the proper intention (the intention of the Church) must likewise be present. Each of these essential elements:
