Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Was It Worth It?

We hear many stories about women and men who value things or status over the people in their lives or over genuine fulfillment. Then something happens that throws them back on their heels and they are forced to face the question: Was it worth it? No, say the writers of today's readings. It is not worth losing yourself or the people you love. In fact, it is not worth risking your own integrity. The Hebrew word for vanity can be translated as "worthless" or "foolish." The characters in the first reading and the Gospel passage were considered foolish because the labors and possessions that wore them down were ultimately worthless. This idea of vanity or foolishness is a prominent theme in the Wisdom tradition. We all know that actions have consequences. It's these consequences that reveal what is good for us and what is not, what is worth pursuing and what we should avoid. Those who learn from life experiences in this way are considered wise; those who don't are deemed foolish. We all know this; we have learned the truth of it from our own experience. There is one more aspect that must be considered in making wise decisions. Which consequences are worth the effort we put into achieving them? Are we looking for short-term enjoyment or do we seek long-term satisfaction? The profit attained by the people in these readings did not last. They couldn't take it with them, so one might ask: Was it worth it?

Eucharist to Homebound and Hospitalized

Call the office to arrange for a visit from a priest or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

The quest for personal prestige can become a spiritual malady masquerading itself even behind good intentions: for example, when behind the good that we do and preach, we are only seeking ourselves and our own affirmation —that is, getting ahead and climbing up.

Prayer to The Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, refuge of sinners,
I beg of you by the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and by the graces
God has granted to you since your Immaculate Conception,
the grace of never going astray again.
Mother, keep me, a sinner, constantly bathed in the light of your Immaculate Heart.
Amen.

SAINT OF THE WEEK— Feast Day August 2nd SAINT PETER JULIAN EYMARD

St. Peter Julian Eymard was born February 4, 1811 in France. From young childhood he had a deep devotion to the Holy Eucharist and it became the focus of his life. In 1834 Peter was ordained and served as a diocesan priest, but he felt another call and he sought admission to the Society of Mary, the Marists. After initial reluctance, his diocesan Bishop allowed him to join them in 1839. His zeal and prayerfulness resulted in him being named a Marist Provincial. However, his attraction to the Eucharist became so all-consuming that he felt a third call within his priestly vocation. He founded the Society of the Blessed Sacrament in 1857 in Paris and a year after, the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament for nuns. St. Peter Julian Eymard composed many sermons, retreats and reflections on the Eucharist which have been collected into nine volumes, packed with spiritual treasures. He died August 1, 1868 at age 57.

He was canonized by Pope John XXIII in 1962 and in 1995 he was named "Apostle of the Eucharist" by Saint Pope John Paul II.

" The Eucharist is everything, because from the Eucharist, everything is. "

PRAYER

DEVOTION TO OUR BLESSED MOTHER

Pray The Rosary Daily

In 1945 Pope Pius XII extended to the entire Church devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary ...the safe haven in the midst of the tempest that everywhere assails us. Through the symbol of Mary's heart we venerate her most pure and perfect love for God and her motherly love for each one of us. In her heart we can find a refuge in the midst of all the difficulties and temptations of life, and we ask her to prepare for us the safe way, the way by which we will soon reach her Son.

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Heavenly Father, we lift up all those who are facing various illnesses. Give them the hope and courage they need today and every day. Comfort their pain, calm their fears, grant them healing, according to Your will. Keep them in Your loving care, and surround them with Your peace. Amen

FOR HEALING AND STRENGTH, KEEP THEM IN YOUR PRAYERS...

* Call the office to add your loved one or yourself to the list of those needing prayer.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus,
I believe that
You are present
In the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You
above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You
as if You were already there and unite myself
wholly to You.
Never permit me
to be separated from You.
Amen*

*Thank God ... for the gift of Jesus
in the Eucharist!*

Treasure Hunt

1. What is the name of the VICE, or selfish desire, humans have to want more than we need?
2. In material terms, what was the source of the rich man's wealth? To Jesus, what IS the source of the "riches" (or treasures) we have in our lives?
3. To create space for his wealth, the rich man decides to tear down his small _____ and build a bigger one.
4. Jesus called him a " _____ " and that very night the rich man _____.
5. Think of two (2) ways the rich man could've used his wealth to be "rich in what matters to God"?
6. Is it "money" or "the love of money" that is the root of all evil? Explain your choice.

Welcome back, Fr. Gregorio Honorio, Diocesan Vicar of Clergy, and many thanks for celebrating our Masses this weekend.

Dear Padre,

The new priest assigned to our parish seldom shakes hands at the sign of peace during Mass. Isn't he supposed to?

You may be surprised to know that the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (154) calls for the priest to remain in the sanctuary at the sign of peace to avoid disrupting the assembly's exchange. He has the option of exchanging a sign of peace with the ministers—it's optional because to do so repeats the first greeting of peace he just extended to everyone in the assembly. In the United States, an exception is made for special occasions such as weddings, funerals, or when community leaders are present. In those cases, the GIRM allows the priest to offer the sign of peace to people sitting near the sanctuary. Ironically, many parishioners view the presider's participation less as a distortion of the rite than as a positive indicator of their priest's social skills, as in "Father is such a people person!" Offering—and being offered—an actual sign of Christ's peace during Mass is intended to be poignant, prayerful, and powerful, with a different kind of fanfare than when greeters welcome worshipers before Mass or when the presider shakes hands and socializes immediately after Mass
