GOOD NEWS

ANN M. GARRIDO

The most treasured prayer of Jesus' people has long been and remains the Shema: "Hear O Israel, the Lord is God. The Lord is One." Jewish spirituality is grounded not in seeing or touching or tasting, but in hearing. No one exemplifies fidelity to this way of being in the world more than Joseph, as evidenced in today's gospel. Joseph is one who listens to what God's messenger says to him and immediately acts on it. He responds to the call to flee with Mary and Jesus to Egypt. Then, he responds to the call to return home with his family to Israel. As many have noted, Joseph never speaks in Scripture, but he certainly listens, and he certainly acts on what he hears. Christmas is perhaps the noisiest season of the year. At gatherings of family and friends with festive music in the background, it often feels as if we are shouting over one another to be heard. It is a season when it can be hard to have deep conversations, even with God. Indeed, it can be such a busy season that sometimes our regular prayer practices fall by the wayside. But, if we do not make space in our daily lives to listen, might we miss messages that are important, even urgent, for us to hear, as in the case of today's gospel? Messages that require immediate response? What would it look like to carve out a bit of silence in this holiday season, to be like Joseph and reground yourself in a spirituality of listening? ●

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.

COLOSSIANS 3:16

silence, or am I tempted to fill the silence with noise?*

The Family We All Dream Of

Our family is our “little world” – the place where we feel at home. It is the environment where we first feel loved and where we learn to love and care. Unfortunately, in our days, in far too many cases, the dream of a happy and faithful family has been shattered by selfishness, jealousy, pride, irresponsibility Our celebration of the Feast of the Holy Family repropose to all of us both the attractiveness of the dream of a united and happy family and the means to make it a reality by living out the message of God’s Word. May the example of Mary Most Holy, Joseph and Jesus and the teaching of St. Paul be our inspiration in making our families what we dream of and what God wants them to be.

1st Reading from the Book of Sirach 3:2-6,12-14

The respectful attitude of the children toward their parents is an important factor in building up a happy family. Such is the truth inculcated by the pious author Ben Sirach in today’s First Reading.

2nd Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Colossians 3:12-21

Love, mutual respect and concern should be among the special traits of every Christian family. Such is the challenging message of St. Paul to the believers of all times.

Gospel Matthew 2:13-15,19-23

Hardships can test even the best of families. Trust in God and obedience to His law and plans are the source of their endurance and strength. Such is the message coming to us from the vicissitudes of the Holy Family which experienced persecution and the hardship of being refugees in a foreign land.

DEAR VISITOR TO ST. BENEDICT CATHOLIC CHURCH, ALOHA! THANK YOU FOR VISITING US TODAY! WE WISH YOU A BEAUTIFUL EXPERIENCE AND THAT YOU LEAVE ST. A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Young people of our time, like those of every age, are a volcano of life, energy, sentiments, and ideas. It can be seen from the wonderful things they are able to do, in so many fields. However, they also need help in order for this great wealth to grow in harmony and to overcome what...can still hinder their healthy development.

A Friend

Dear Padre,

A friend of mine took his life. He was a very staunch Catholic. His wife wanted to know if he could be buried or have a Mass in the Catholic Church. Yes, your friend should most certainly receive a Catholic funeral and burial. "We should not despair of the eternal salvation of persons who have taken their own lives. By ways known to him alone, God can provide the opportunity for salutary repentance. The Church prays for persons who have taken their own lives" (The Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2283). A person who is suffering with a mental illness or disorder, certainly a prerequisite for suicide, may not have the necessary mental freedom to choose something that is understood as grave or mortal. In other words, he or she does not have the necessary requirements for full and free consent of the will. Not that long ago, suicide was often misunderstood. Thankfully, today we understand the havoc and suffering of mental illness, and that a person can be a victim, even if it might look like he or she is not. The great suffering of those who take their own lives must not be dismissed or discarded. The family members and friends of a person who suffers suicide should also not be judged but should only receive compassion and understanding. They, too, are victims, in the fullest sense of the word and in the truest understanding of what it means to be a fragile human being. ● Fr. Thomas M. Santa, CSsR / DearPadre.org

Sheepish Question:

When have I been less than understanding with members of my own family or faith community?
